

Myth: Hell doesn't exist.

Response: Although no living human can prove scientifically that Hell exists, there is substantial evidence in the Scriptures, and Jesus himself taught extensively about it. (Matthew 25:41, Revelation 20:14-15)

Myth: Hell is a figurative term that refers to eternally ceasing to exist.

Response: This is a dangerous misinterpretation of the Scriptures. Many passages refute this idea, and the Bible is clear that Hell is a real place of eternal punishment. (Matthew 25:46, Revelation 14:10-11)

Myth: Hell is only temporary.

Response: After death, the righteous will inherit eternal life, and the unrighteous will face eternal punishment. (Matthew 25:46, Revelation 20:10)

Myth: Life in Hell will be somewhat like earth.

Response: This is a common misconception portrayed in movies and books, but the Bible describes Hell as a place of torture and torment, with only one concern: the pain of being away from God's presence. (Luke 16:23-24, Rev. 20:15)

Myth: Hell won't be that bad.

Response: The Bible describes Hell as a terrible place of punishment, and making light of it is foolish. (Matthew 25:46, Revelation 14:10-11)

Myth: God sends people to Hell arbitrarily.

Response: God is just, and Hell is the consequence of our choices and actions. Those who reject God and refuse to repent will be separated from Him for eternity. (2 Thessalonians 1:9, Romans 2:6-8)

Myth: Hell is a place where Satan rules.

Response: Hell is the place where Satan and his demons suffer eternal punishment. Satan will also be punished in Hell, and the Bible describes it as a place of punishment for all who reject God. (Matthew 25:41, Revelation 20:10)

Myth: Hell is a place for people who have committed terrible sins. Only the worst people go to Hell.

Response: All have sinned and fallen short of God's glory, and salvation is available to all who repent and believe in Jesus Christ. Rejecting Jesus is the ultimate sin and leads to eternal separation from God. (Romans 3:23, John 3:18)

Myth: Hell is a place where we can party with our friends.

Response: This is a false portrayal of Hell that contradicts the Bible's description of it as a place of darkness, isolation, and torment. (Luke 16:26, Revelation 20:10)

Myth: Hell is a place to be united with unbelievers.

Response: Hell is a place of utter isolation, loneliness, and deprivation. (Luke 16:26)

Myth: Satan and his demons will torment human beings in Hell.

Response: Satan and his demons are the objects of God's punishment. (Revelation 20:10)

Myth: There are people in Hell who want to reconcile with God.

Response: Those in Hell are eternally defiant of God and hate him. (Revelation 16:9)

Myth: There are people in Hell who don't deserve to be there.

Response: God's justice is impeccable, and he never consigns anyone to punishment in Hell who does not deserve to suffer there. (Romans 6:23)

Myth: There are people in Hell who wanted to go to Heaven.

Response: Those who genuinely seek God will find Him. (Jeremiah 29:13)

Myth: Hell is just a state of mind.

Response: Hell is a real place of eternal punishment. (Matthew 25:46)

Myth: God sends people to Hell out of anger.

Response: God is saddened when people go to Hell because they have rejected His offer of salvation through Jesus Christ. (John 3:16-18)

Myth: It is possible to escape from Hell.

Response: The Bible is clear that once a person is in Hell, there is no escape. (Luke 16:26)

Myth: The punishment in Hell is only temporary.

Response: The punishment in Hell is eternal, and there is no escape from it. (Revelation 14:11)

Myth: Hell is just a scare tactic used by religious leaders to control people.

Response: The Bible teaches about the reality of Hell, and Jesus Himself warned people about it. (Matthew 10:28)

Myth: It is possible to pray for someone to be released from Hell.

Response: Once a person is in Hell, their fate is sealed, and there is no opportunity for salvation. (Hebrews 9:27)

Myth: Hell is a place where people will be given a second chance to repent.

Response: There is no opportunity for repentance in Hell, and the Bible teaches that we must repent while we are still alive. (Hebrews 3:15)

Myth: God takes pleasure in sending people to Hell.

Response: God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked, and He desires that all people come to repentance. (Ezekiel 33:11) He finds no satisfaction in those who choose Hell over Him.

Myth: Hell is a physical location that can be reached by travelling underground.

Response: Hell is a spiritual realm, and it cannot be reached by physical means. (Ephesians 6:12)

Myth: A just God would not send people to Hell.

Response: Hell will be populated by people who chose to be there. Those who will occupy Hell will be those who avoided contact with the One who made them.

---

Common Myths About Hell Debunked!

---

Dr. Craig Ponder
New Salem Baptist Church
May 1, 2024